SOURCE Documentary (Radiogram)

The following message was intercepted from transmitter BAY2, Peking, Radioteletype in Russian to Moscow, Tuesday, July 3, 1951 at 1108 GMT:

(Text)

To Comrade Mikhailov, the Central Committee of the All-Union Lenin's Communist Youth League, Moscow.

Youth Delegations from eastern countries--Korea, Vietnam, Japan, and Siam--which consist of about one hundred seventy persons will travel through China and the U.S.S.R. to the festival in Berlin.

We may render them financial assistance during their sojourn on Chinese territory. We hope that you also will render them financial assistance after the arrival of the Delegations in the U.S.S.R. The Chinese Youth Delegation consists of only three hundred twelve persons.

The Delegation will leave Peking for Berlin in two groups. The first group will leave by train and the second group later by airplane. Request that you render them assistance and cooperation during the Delegation's trip through the U.S.S.R. Awaiting reply.

With brotherly greetings: Signed, Secretary of the Central Committee of the New Democratic Chinese Youth League.
